Carbios announces its participation at the European Smallcap Event in Paris on 27 and 28 April, 2015

Clermont-Ferrand, France, 16 April, 2015 – Carbios (NYSE Alternext Paris : ALCRB), an innovative green chemistry company specializing in breakthrough technologies dedicated to the recovery of plastic waste and the production of bio-polymers, announces its participation at the European Smallcap Event in Paris on 27 and 28 April at the Paris Pullman Hotel – Tour Eiffel.

Over the course of two days, Jean-Claude Lumaret, CEO, Emmanuel Maille, Head of Strategy and Development, and Raquel Lizarraga, Head of Investor Relations, will meet with institutional investors in one-to-one meetings to present Carbios' recent results, growth strategy and on-going development.

About Carbios

Carbios is a young, innovative green chemistry company, whose mission is to find biological solutions to the environmental and sustainable development issues faced by industrial businesses today. Carbios acquired the rights to research that was conducted over a number of years by various public and private sector laboratories. By leveraging the unique properties of biological catalysts (enzymes), it has used this research as the foundation for developing innovative industrial bioprocesses that optimize the technical, economic and environmental performance of polymers (thermoplastic materials and synthetic or food-based fibers). The company has focused its efforts on a strategic application sector: plastics. Carbios' growth strategy is based on a clear business model of industrial value creation that targets attractive markets, develops innovative and competitive bioprocesses and licenses them to major industrial stakeholders for commercialization. Carbios benefits from the financial support of the leading European venture capital firm Truffle Capital. Carbios was founded in 2011 and has been managed, since its inception, by the Holding Incubatrice Chimie Verte fund. Carbios was granted the label "Young Innovative Company" by Bpifrance (former OSEO) and is eligible for investments by private equity mutual funds (FCPIs).
